We are pleased to receive your application for admission to Florida State University. Your responses to the following questions were left blank. Please submit this form, so that we may add this information to your file.

Yes No Are you currently, or have you ever been, charge with or subject to disciplinary action for scholastic or any other type of behavioral misconduct at any educational institution? You do not need to disclose academic dismissal, suspension, or probation for poor grades. However, you will be required to furnish FSU with a written explanation of the events(s) if there was academic misconduct (such as plagiarism or cheating) or behavioral misconduct, and tell us what you have learned from your past action(s).

Yes No Have you ever been charged with a violation of the law which resulted in, or if still pending could result in, probation, community service, a jail sentence, or the revocation or suspension of your driver's license (including traffic violations which resulted in a fine of $200 or more)? You will be required to furnish FSU with a list of all violations, and include a statement telling us what you have learned from your past action(s).

Yes No Have you ever been charged with a felony (even if adjudication was withheld)? You will be required to furnish FSU with a copy of your criminal background history from each state in which the violation(s) occurred. If the violation(s) occurred in Florida, the criminal background history can be emailed to the Office of Admissions at admsoffice@admin.fsu.edu from the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (www.fdle.state.fl.us). You will be required to furnish a statement telling us what you have learned from your past actions.

If your answer to any of the above questions is "yes," the University reserves the right to request additional information. If your records have been expunged pursuant to the applicable law, you are not required to answer yes to these questions. If you are unsure whether you should answer yes, we strongly suggest you answer yes and fully disclose all incidents. By doing so, you can avoid any risk of disciplinary action or revocation of an offer of admissions.
